Good Afternoon,

The 24 Hour Focus on Quality Activity Service Delivery for Persons with Dementia training offered jointly by the Alzheimer's Association and the Department of Social Services will be offered in Richmond on April 25, 26, & 27, 2019. The Charlottesville dates have not yet been confirmed. The Richmond training brochure is attached to this email. If you are interested in attending the Richmond session, please follow the registration requirements listed in the announcement and register early as this training fills up quickly.

Thank you,

--
